 50 provost or his or her designee shall give final approval for awards to successful faculty.
 51 Each year, the University shall make available to eligible employees 115 Incentive Awards.
 52 The awards shall be distributed to awardees in the next award cycle after ratification of this 53 document as set forth below. Regardless of contract length (9 months through 12 months), 54 award recipients shall receive a one-time award of $5,000 as soon as practicable and a 55 $5,000 increase to their salary effective at the beginning of the succeeding academic year.
 56 Employees on visiting and other temporary appointments are not eligible for incentive 57 awards. Employees on non-E&G funding will be eligible for the increase depending on 58 availability of funds. All full-time employees in the appropriate discipline with at least four 59 years of continuous, non-OPS service at UCF immediately prior to the current year are 60 eligible.

61 (a) UCF-Teaching Incentive Program. The UCF-Teaching Incentive Program (“UCF-62 TIP”) rewards teaching productivity and excellence. Each academic year the University shall 63 make available up to fifty-five UCF-TIP awards to eligible employees. The UCF-TIP award 64 recognizes employee contributions to UCF’s key goals of offering the best undergraduate 65 education available in Florida and achieving international prominence in key programs of 66 graduate study. Employees applying for TIPs must meet current productivity criteria.

67 (b) UCF-Research Incentive Award Program. The UCF-Research Incentive Award
 68 (“UCF-RIA”) program recognizes outstanding research, scholarly, or creative activity that 69 advances the body of knowledge in a particular field, including interdisciplinary research 70 and collaborations. Each academic year the University shall make available up to fifty-five 71 UCF-RIA awards to eligible employees. The UCF-RIA award recognizes employee 72 contributions to UCF’s key goal of achieving international prominence in research and 73 creative activities.

74 (c) Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Awards (SoTLs). SoTLs recognize discovery, 75 reflection, and using evidence-based methods to research effective teaching and student 76 learning in higher education (i.e., at the university level). SoTL goes beyond teaching based 77 on evidence for specific teaching and learning practices. While the implementation of SoTL 78 outcomes may result in teaching excellence and increased teaching effectiveness, this 79 award recognizes scholarly efforts beyond teaching excellence. The University shall make 80 available up to five SoTL awards.

81 (d) Applications for Incentive Awards. Applications shall be completed online. These 82 awards shall be made according to the criteria or procedures listed on the Faculty 83 Excellence website.

 93 additional criteria be used. The committee shall review the award applications and shall Commented [CP2]: Clarity to ensure that SoTL research is university level, not K-12 focused.

94 submit a ranked list of recommended employees to the dean or dean's representative. In 95 ranking the applicants, committee members shall only consider the merits of the application.

96 a. Each committee member shall review all applications and transmit a 97 preliminary ranking to the committee chair. Committee members may rank as many 98 applicants as they deem merit the award, with the highest rank given to the top candidate
99 (i.e., the highest rank equals the number of applicants, N), the next highest rank being N-1, 100 and so on. Applications that are not deemed acceptable for an award by a committee 101 member shall be left unranked in that committee member's rankings.

102 b. In larger colleges or units, subcommittees may be formed from the committee
103 at-large in the interest of efficient evaluation of the incentive award applications. Each 104 subcommittee must include at least three members, and every member of the committee at-105 large must serve on a subcommittee. The applications to be reviewed shall be equitably
106 partitioned among the subcommittees. The subcommittees shall follow the ranking 107 procedure outlined above to determine which applications they recommend to the 108 committee at-large. Then the committee at-large shall be convened to review the 109 applications recommended by the subcommittees.

110 c. The committee chair shall convene the committee (at-large) and review their 111 initial rankings. Discussion shall be limited to information contained in the application and 112 may focus on applicants with few or dispersed rankings.

113 d. Following this discussion, the committee shall use a secret ballot to rank 114 candidates using the procedure outlined in (a) above.

115 e. A majority of voting committee members present must rank an applicant for 116 that employee to be eligible for an incentive award.

117 f. The applicant with the highest mean rank (i.e., the sum of the applicant's 118 rankings divided by the number of committee members present) shall have the highest 119 priority for an incentive award, the applicant with the next highest mean rank the next 120 highest priority, and so on, until all applicants who received rankings by a majority of 121 committee members present are ranked in order.

122 g. In the case of T applicants with tied mean rank for the final T-1 or fewer 123 available award(s), the procedure outlined in (a) above, with T being the highest possible 124 rank, shall be used to break the ties. The ranking process outlined in (a) above shall be 125 used as many times in succession as necessary until all such ties are resolved and a final 126 ranked list is complete.

127 h. The committee chair shall transmit this ranked list to the dean or dean's 128 representative, or unit head who reviews and approves the awards. If the selection 129 committee awards fewer than the number of awards available or if the dean or unit head 130 does not approve an award from the list submitted by the selection committee, then the 131 award(s) shall be retained in the same college or unit for one additional cycle before it is 132 returned to the overall pool for apportionment.

133 i. For purposes of TIP/RIA selection as stated above, "college" shall also 134 include the group of employees whose primary assignment is in the College of 135 Undergraduate Studies, the College of Graduate Studies, an institute or center. These 136 employees shall be grouped together for purposes of calculating the number of awards 137 available for each award category. The college committee shall consist of a member from 138 each of the units represented.
